THE WICKED SOUTH.

SENATOR BLAINE TO FURNISH MORE "TESTIMONY."

Wholesale Introduction of Bills in the House---Financial and Military Measures---Waste of Time.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—SENATE.—Senator McDonald being absent, the consideration of his resolution was postponed. Senator Blaine gave notice of his proposed amendment to it, also to refer to the committee on alleged election frauds facts in regard to Southern districts, referred to by him on Thursday last.

Senator Edmunds called attention to what he alleged was an unfair way in which ex parte charges were printed for public information by the Wallace Committee so as to be mistaken for established facts. Senator Wallace defended the counce of the Committee, and a debate ensued, participated in by Senators Edmunds, Dawes, Thurman, and Blaine. Senator Thurman said that one-sided statements were also made public as evidence by the ku-klux committee in the South. Portions of the testimony bearing against Democrats found their way into print and not the rest. He favored making all testimony public and letting the people judge for themselves.

The morning hour expired and Senator McDonald's resolution went over. The House bill to amend the act making an appropriation for the construction of canal works on the Great Kanawha and Kentucky rivers, and authorizing the Secretary of War to use part of the appropriation for necessary purchases, was then considered and passed, af er which the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Under call of the States many bills were introduced and referred. Among these were the following: By Mr. Wise (Pa.), for the taxation of promissory notes, and bonds and mortgages, and making it unlawful to exact more than 5 per cent. interest for a loan of money. By Mr. Sanford (Ala.), prohibiting the funding of United States bonds "payable in currency," into coin bonds, and by Lowe (Ala.) to substitute legal-tender currency for national bank currency. By Mr. Springer (Ill.), prohibiting any soldiers stationed within two miles of any place where a special or general election of Representatives in Congress is being held, from leaving his barracks for any purpose except that of relieving guard or casting his vote, on the day of election. This bill provides that on the day appointed for a general or special election of representatives in Congress, no soldier, stationed within two miles of any polling place, shall be allowed to go out of the barracks except to mount or relieve guard, or to vote, when he shall return immediately.

Mr. Roberts, of Louisiana, chairman of the Committee on Mississippi Levees, moved to auspend the rules and pass the bill for the appointment of a Mississippi River Commission for the improvement of said river, from the head of the Passes near its mouth to its head waters. Passed 129 to 20. It provides for the appointment of five commissioners, three from the Engineer Corps and two from civil life, who shall take into consideration and mature plans for the improvement of the Mississippi river and report the same to Congress; $175,000 is appropriated to meet the expenses of the Commission.

The bill also passed appropriating $20,000 to provide for the representation of the United States at the Austrian exhibition in 1879-80.

Adjourned.

The Eastern Shore Tragedy.

SNOW HILL, Md., June 2.—In the trial of Miss Duer to-day, Judge Irvin announced the ruling of the court on the question before them. He said it was unnecessary, and perhaps not proper for the court to indicate in what way the testimony adduced had influenced their minds differently from the way it had impressed the counsel. The court after full consideration, thinks that all declarations offered in the evidence made by the deceased during the last week of her sickness, must be admitted. All conditions necessary to make them admissable concurred—judging from the evidence before them in reference to the declarations made anterior to that time—the court are not satisfied, and therefore will now receive them. Mrs. George Truitt being called and not answering, Mr. Page said, under the ruling of the Court, James Hearne, deceased's father, and Mrs. Truitt were the only witnesses to the dying declarations the State had, and he would call Mr. Hearn on the stand, reserving the right to call Mrs. Truitt, who was sick in bed, to-day.

The Sultan Jealous of his Authority.

LONDON, June 2.—A Vienna dispatch to the Times says the concessions of Governor General Aleko Pasha to the populace in not hoisting the Turkish flag and wearing the fez have produced a very bad effect at Constantinople, especially on the Sultan, who seems to attach far greater importance to these matters than his ministers. The Sultan is said to be determined to insist on the hoisting of the Turkish flag. It is said that stringent instructions to that effect have already been sent to Aleko Pasha. It is also intended to lay the case before the powers. Aleko's conduct is considered insulting, and as the first step in a movement which in the end will render the Porte's authority altogether illusory. This fear seems not altogether baseless, as agitation has commenced in favor of a native command of militia which points toward a denial or limitation of the Sultan's treaty right to appoint militia officers.

A New Russian Loan.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 2.—A ukase has been issued instructing the Minister of Finance to issue a 5 per cent. internal loan at 92½ for the nominal amount of three hundred million roubles to cover the expenses of the late war. Subscriptions will be opened on the 5th inst.

The Rainfall in India.

CALCUTTA, June 2.—There has been a plentiful rain here and in the neighborhood during the past week, doing much good. Reports are not yet received from outlying districts, but there is every reason to believe that the rainfall has been general.

No Veto this Time.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The President has approved the bill to prevent the introduction of contagious and infectious diseases into the United States.

Judge Christian on Colored Jurors.

RICHMOND, Va., June 2.—Judge Christian, of the Hustings Court, to-day informed a committee of colored citizens who had presented a petition that no discriminations be made between white and colored in choosing jurors from the poll list, that the court had the right to judge of qualifications of jurors, and where men were not intelligent he should pass them by.

The Manhattan Bank Case.

NEW YORK, June 2.—No new developments to-day in the Manhattan bank burglary case. The hearing will go on in the Jefferson Market Court this afternoon. The police are confident of the conviction of Hope, Dobbs, Slevin and Kelly, and of the speedy arrest of the other three parties known to be in the job.

Death of General Shields.

Death of Mr. Wetherell.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, June 2, 1879.—It is with feelings of regret that we are to-day called upon to chronicle the death of Mr. H. B. Wetherell, father of our esteemed fellow-citizen, W. P. Wetherell, Esq., which occurred at his residence in Assonett, Mass., on Sunday last.

Prior to the late war, Captain Wetherell was engaged in the wholesale dry-goods business in New York, and was numbered among the most successful business men of that city; he was afterward connected with the Custom House in Boston where he had a large circle of friends.

Many of our citizens will remember him as a most courtly and genial gentleman, he having paid a visit, about four years since, to his son in this city. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. W. P. Wetherell in this hour of his sore bereavement. X.

A FRIGHTFUL HOMICIDE.

Charlotte Observer.

Citizens of Steel Creek township who were in the city yesterday, report a homicide committed Friday in that section of the county under circumstances of unusual barbarity. There had been a difficulty it appears, between a negro whose name is not given, and a son of Mr. Andrew Bates, of Steel Creek, a youth about twenty years of age. Friday, young Bates was at work alone in a field near his father's house, when this negro approached him and their quarrel was renewed. What passed between at this time is not known, but the result was a fight in wich the negro knocked the young man down, and after this proceeded to cut and slash him with a knife, in a most frightful manner. Having stabbed the youth repeatedly in the face, neck and breast, inflicting upon him wounds necessarily fatal, the savage negro turned him over on his face and stabbed him a number of times in the back. The negro then left him dead upon the ground and made good his escape.

Mrs. Bates, the mother of the slain boy, witnessed the transaction, having been attracted to the scene, probably by the high words, or by the cries of her son, but was unable to avert the fatal result.

Particulars of the sad occurrence are rather meager, and the above is all that could be gathered yesterday in reference to the matter.

Postmaster Arrested.

Franklin Reporter, 28th.

Capt. J. W. Terrell, Postmaster at Webster, and his deputy, Mr. Watkins, were arrested Monday evening by a detective of the Postoffice Department, sent out from Richmond, Va. We learn from Mr. Wilson, who came here to secure the services of Dr. Love, as counsel for Captain Terrell, that the trouble arose in connection with a money order deposit. A deposit of one hundred and seventy dollars was registered at Webster, or is claimed to have been, but on reaching Richmond the package was found to contain nothing. A trace was at once made and no irregularity in the transit being discovered suspicion rested on the office at Webster, and hence the arrest of the above parties.

We give the above as reported. Capt. Terrell is one of our best known citizens in this section, and no one here supposes that he has taken the missing money. He is not only above suspicion of such a thing but is a man of too much sense to have committed such a deed. We fear, however, that he will be given great trouble setting himself right, as we understand that the only witness to the registering of the money was the deputy postmaster, whereas it should have been an outside party. We hope Captain Terrell will be able to find the guilty party, for as we said above, no one here can think him guilty.

Why Men Die.

Morganton Blade.

The indignant subscriber to the Blade came into the office a few days ago and ordered his paper stopped because he differed with the editor in his views on subsoiling fence rails. The editor conceded his right to stop his paper, and remarked coolly as he looked over the list:

"Do you know Sowers, down at Lower Fork?"

"Very well," said the man.

"Well, he stopped his paper last week because I thought a farmer was a blamed fool who didn't know that timothy was a good thing to graft on huckleberry bushes, and he died in less than four hours."

"Gracious is that so?" asked the astonished farmer.

"Yes; and you know old George Brindle, up on Irish Creek?"

"Well' I've heard of him."

"Well," said the editor gravely, "he stopped his paper because he was the happy father of twins, and we congratulated him on his success so late in life. He fell dead within twenty minutes. There's lots of similar cases, but it don't matter; I'll just cross your name off, though you don't look strong, and there's a bad color on your nose."

"See here, Mister Crowson," said the subscriber, looking somewhat alarmed, "I believe I'll just keep on another year, because I always did like your paper, and I was only mad with you because I have been unable to get a drink since you have been Mayor."

A Word About Gov. Jarvis.

Charlotte Observer.

Governor Jarvis seems to be after Littlefield in dead earnest and sooner or later he will have him. That right arm of the governor hasn't got any bone in it worth mentioning, but his back isn't in the least defective in this particular, and when he undertakes to do a thing he does it or is able to render a reason why.

MACON'S MINERAL LAND.

A CORUNDUM MINE "PANNING OUT" HEAVILY.

The Section a Great Mineral Deposit, where there is Money for all who will work.

Franklin Reporter,

Macon and the surrounding counties are rich in minerals. We have almost a complete list of all the valuable minerals of the world. The corundum already shipped from this section has been worth an immense amount of money. In conversation with Mr. Jacobs, who superintended the work at the Sugar Fork mine, during the time it was worked by Jenks, we learned that the corundum worked out was worth at the lowest calculation $38,000. This was the value of the corundum alone. In addition to this a large number of gems of the very finest kind, were taken out at no additional cost. A large amount of money must have been realized from these, though it is not known here what they brought, with the exception of one, which was sold for one thousand dollars. The cost of working the mine during the time was $8,000; so it will readily be seen that the profits were large.

The above mine is now owned and worked by Dr. Lucas, and since he has been working he has taken out about the same quantity of corundum that the former party shipped; but not so many fine gems. Thus it will be seen what a large amount has been realized from this one mine of this mineral, while the mine has been worked only a short time.

As to our mica interests, we have no data upon which to base any estimate of the value of the quantity shipped, but the amount has been enormous, but the clear gain on this has been probably less than that on the corundum. Several hundred thousand dollars worth though have been shipped since the business was opened here, and from the amount of work doing now we have no doubt that a large amount will be realized on this during the next few months.

But these two minerals, are not the only ones in our section which are valuable. We have the finest outcropping of iron deposits that are found anywhere. Speaking recently with a miner, who has been all through the great iron regions of Pennsylvania, and other noted iron mining sections, he said that the finest outcrop of this kind he had ever seen was here in a few miles of Franklin. The truth is this section is one grand mineral deposit, and there is money here for all those who are able and willing to dig for it.

We regret to hear that a disease among the cattle in some parts of this county is proving very fatal.

The cholera is raging among the hogs in the town. The editor of this paper has lost by this disease the finest prospect for making his own meat he ever had, by the death of several promising hogs.

Franklin Reporter.

Mr. Terrel Bradley, living near Smith's Bridge in this county, was badly injured by a horse one day last week. He was trying to hold a horse, which attempted to run away with a plow. The horse knocked him down, broke one of his arms, and bruised him up severely.

Dr. Lucas, who now owns and is working the Jenk's corundum mine, has just found a gem worth $9,000 it is said. He has others said to be of great value. Truly this North Carolina goose (the corundum mine) is laying golden eggs for Massachusetts, if there is no mistake about the reports.

Master Preston Felts has been trying various methods to destroy the yellow striped bugs that seemed determined to eat up the young plants. As a last resort he tried sprinkling with slaked lime, and he says he "got away with 'em."

We learn from deputy collector J. Q. A. Bryant that the grasshoppers have made their appearance in great numbers in the Crab Orchard district in Tennessee. He says that in going a distance of two miles he saw myriads upon myriads of them, and that they were literally destroying vegetation, even eating the young leaves upon the trees.

Black walnut timber is being cut in this county and along the mountain slopes bordering on Tennessee, and shipped to New York and from thence to Paris, where it is largely used for veneering. The trees are cut and hewn nearly square, and shipped in bulk. When made into veneers, paper is pasted on one side, and then it is cut into pieces less than one-sixteenth of an inch in thickness. This piece is then glued to the part that it is to cover, with the paper inside to prevent splitting.

Mecklenburg.

Charlotte Observer.

Alexander Turrentine (colored), was killed Thursday by the bursting of a soda fountain which he was charging. As soon as an examination could be made, it was ascertained that the bones of his skull immediately around the eye had been badly broken and mashed in. He died in a very few minutes. The fountain had burst in the middle where it was encircled by a band, and from the surrounding circumstances it was readily seen that the upper part of it had struck Turrentine while he was standing over it. A mark on the joists above indicated that the upper part had been thrown against it, while the lower portion was forced in the other direction. Persons in the store distinctly felt the jar caused by a part of the fountain striking the floor.

Wilson.

Wilson Advance.

Mr. Julius Hardy has shown us the largest strawberry we ever saw. It measures 5 3-4 inches in circumference and was pulled from a plant of one year's growth in his father's nursery.

A man who wins his fortune in a lottery can probably afford to invest it in "futures," but bitter experience has recently shown some of our friends that those who make their money by hard and honest blows cannot wisely risk it on the fluctuations in the prices of cotton.

Mr. J. B. Davis, having bought the Macon House in Morehead City, N. C., will leave Wilson soon to open a first class hotel at that place. Having had considerable experience in keeping hotels, he thoroughly understands the business, and always takes pleasure in providing for the comfort of his guests. A clever gentleman, with rare social qualities, he will make himself popular wherever he may go, and while he will be greatly missed by his many friends here, we feel sure that he has consulted his interest in making the change, and trust that in his new home, he may be blessed with unbounded success.

We have in our vicinity a confectionery store, which supplies the general wants of the people. A few days ago an old gentleman living in the "Rocks" vicinity purchased a ham of bacon at said store, and after returning home, ate a good supply for supper, and then retired for the night. On waking up he discovered a bright light burning in the fireplace, and found his appetite had returned for more ham. He then concluded to take a midnight snack, consequently he returned the second time, leaving the bone destitute of meat, and none for breakfast. We will not vouch for the truth of this statement, but have the old gentleman's word for it.

Friends in the vicinity of Rocky River Springs desire us to urge the necessity of a postal route from Polkton to Albemarle via Rocky River Springs. Some of our Norwood and Albemarle friends might inquire after the contract.

A Freak of Nature.

N. Y. Tribune.

Tourists in North Carolina are not only enabled by the extension of the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad to avoid the wearisome stage-ride from Tryon City to Hendersonville, but are allowed the opportunity of seeing a curious freak of nature known as the "Isothermal Belt." It is a natural hot house in the Tryon Valley. It is a slice of Florida, less than a mile long and about half a mile wide, uncovered at the base of the Blue Ridge, retaining its Southern temperature all winter, while the surrounding mountains and valleys are bleak and bare. The soil and vegetation are the same as those of the adjacent mountain region, but the temperature is higher. Early in April when in the region roundabout the forests are bare, this lovely little belt is clothed in the verdure of summer. The mountains inclose it on every side save the south, and protect it against winds and cold currents of air.

Williams, of Fayetteville, where they resided a while before the war, from which place they removed to Arkansas, where she died. "Let her own works praise her in the gates."

A Scene in Rowan Court.

Charlotte Observer, 1st.

Quite an exciting scene occurred in Salisbury at court on Friday last, between two well known attorneys, Col. H. C. Jones, of Charlotte and Luke Blackmer, Esq., of Salisbury. Colonel J. was making a statement to the court and understanding Mr. B. to impugn his veracity, gave that gentleman an insult, which brought him to his feet and the prompt interference of both judge and sheriff was necessary to prevent a personal reconter. Subsequently, both gentlemen purged themselves of contempt of court.

MORE OF LITTLEFIELD.

CAPTAIN LEE, THE OFFICER OF THE STATE, RETURNS.

An Interview in Which the Details of the Officer's Trip to Florida are Related.

The interest in the Littlefield case awakened again fresh with Monday morning's sun. A great many speculations as to the final result of the case were rife on Sunday, and the matter was discussed from a great many standpoints by the usual drug store parties. There was a general understanding that Captain Lee would be here Monday, and then it would all be explained satisfactorily. He came in yesterday on the Western train, weary, worn and dusty. It was quite a jaunt from Florida to Raleigh in less than two days, and the Captain was too tired to see anybody. He must go home and rest. The reporter did not get a shake at him until a late hour last night. He was found in the ante-chamber of the guard house.

But alas! he didn't know anything more about it than had already been stated in the NEWS. That wouldn't do. "Bound to have it Captain."

"Well, if I must, sit down there, put on your handle and pump away."

"How did it all come about anyway; tell it in your own comprehensive way, Captain?"

He led off well: he was called to Governor Jarvis' room Monday at 7 o'clock p. m.; was told that the Governor wanted him to go to Florida to capture Littlefield; he was armed with a requisition and a certified copy of something from Mr. Thos. Devereaux; on Monday at 12 m., he got Mr. Mitchell, the boiler maker, to consent to go with him, and both left on the 4 p. m. train; they were determined that they would not return without their man.

Jacksonville was reached Thursday morning at 8½ o'clock; they put up at the hotel, washed, refreshed themselves and at 10½ o'clock Captain Lee called on the sheriff to confer about the object of his mission.

Mr. Littlefield was not then under arrest as seems to have been stated before. The sheriff told the captain to go to his room until he called for him. The sheriff went to the Attorney-General and got Governor Drew's warrant for Littlefield's arrest. Everything was propitious. In a short time, as if by accident, the sheriff and his man met on the main street.

"You are my prisoner." Mr. Littlefield seemed much agitated at first, but asked to consult his lawyers. This was granted him. He was escorted to the office of Colonel Stuart and Colonel Walker, and Maj. Badger, of Raleigh, who was in the city as attorney in the railroad suit was also called on. A writ of habeas corpus was at once sued out before Judge Archibald and the trial set for 12:30 p. m., on the same day. This was quick work and quite took Capt. Lee by surprise when so informed by the sheriff. The court met promptly but adjourned till half past three p. m. Mr. Littlefield being admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000, he went to his hotel for dinner. Court was held from 3½ o'clock until 7 p. m. The argument of counsel being upon the question of a flaw on the indictment and statute of limitation; Captain Lee's counsel claiming that the papers were regular, and that the Judge had no right to go behind Governor Drew's warrant. The only place to try this case was in Wake county, N. C.

On Friday the trial was in session from 9 until 12 o'clock. Captain Lee while on the street met Colonel Stuart, to whom he had been introduced during the trial. He was in company with Mr. Littlefield, and the Colonel introduced the gentlemen. Mr. Littlefield was always glad to meet a "gallant Tar." They bandied a few words and——Mr. Littlefield would see him again at the trial, which began at three o'clock. Argument was carried on till nightfall and the trial continued till 9 a. m. Saturday.

As Captain Lee and Mr. Mitchell were enjoying a quiet siesta in front of hte hotel, regaling themselves on the fragrant Havana (they don't smoke five centers in Florida), they were joined by Dr. A. B. Hawkins, an old North Carolinian who has many friends in Raleigh. The Doctor talked well and the party were in splendid spirits. Soon there was a stir in the office of the hotel. A handsome gentleman of commanding appearance and faultlessly attired sauntered up to the desk and asked for Captain John Lee, of North Carolina.

"Oh! he would walk out and see him."

And thus it was that the North Carolina officers were permitted to at least have a talk with Mr. Littlefield if they couldn't catch him.

That was glory enough for one day. The General was next engaging them in conversation.

He knew a good many Raleigh people, and that was like being at home in Florida to meet two fluent talkers like Dr. H. and Mr. L., who could answer so many questions about Raleigh.

"How is Loge Harris, Captain?" said the General. "I would like to see Loge; he used to work mighty hard when we were running the Standard up there in Raleigh."

"He's very well, I believe, General."

"And now is Tim Lee? Old Timotheus, as we used to call him. He was a remarkable man."

"He is doing pretty well, I believe, General."

"And the jolly old boys, I used to meet in the times of the Legislature; how are they getting on, Captain?"

"I don't know, General."

"I can tell you one thing, Captain; I broke many a bottle of champagne when I was in Raleigh, especially with my old friends in the legislature."

"I suppose so, General, from what I have heard people say."

"I would like to go back to Raleigh, and I have come around to talk it all over with you to-night." And he gently fingered with his massive watch chain. "By the way, I bought this watch and chain from Mr. Mahler, of your city. I have worn it ever since. It has been a good time-keeper. I would like to see Mr. Mahler. How is he, Captain?"

"He is very well, General."

"We will have a splendid time going back to Raleigh together, Captain."

"Yes, General," said Mr. Mitchell, who had been "wrapt in solitude"—of a cloud of Havana and had just "come to" in time to catch the words, "going back to Raleigh."

But gentlemen, if you please, I won't go this time."

"Oh you will general," said Captain Lee.

"You mean you hope I will, Captain."

"I'm willing to back my judgment General, I'll bet you three cigars that I take you back to Raleigh."

"Ha! ha! ha! well, Captain, I'll take you up," and they laughed all around. The Raleigh boys thought they had the mighty General, and when they did get him it would be the best joke in the world to tell for all time to come.

After this conversation became more general, and soon the mighty hero took his departure, saying—"I'll meet you again at the trial, gentlemen."

The trial came up again Saturday morniug but was postponed till 3 p. m. in order to hear the decision of Bradley in the great railroad suit. At 3 p. m. Judge Archibald was too unwell to hear the case. It was therefore adjourned till Monday (yesterday). Capt. Lee and Mr. Mitchell thought they had better come home and get instructions from Governor Jarvis. They accordingly did so, arriving here as stated in the outstart of this interview.

They are not done with the case yet. Capt. Lee is an efficient officer, there is no doubt of that, and he said "I'm going to bring Littlefield to North Carolina."

Governor Jarvis is also thoroughly in earnest in his endeavor to bring him to justice, and will leave no means untried to accomplish this end.

These are the latest facts that came to this city yesterday.

The Governor expected a telegram last night but it did not come. As the matters progress the NEWS will endeavor to keep its readers posted.

Southern Enterprise.

We clip the following from the Chicago Journal of Commerce. The Journal is fair and impartial, and therefore entitled to respect:

The establishment of cotton manufactories in some of the Southern States has been attended in almost every instance with the most flattering results. Indeed, so large have been the pecuniary returns to those who invested their money in these enterprises, that there is some danger that the manufacture of cotton goods in some parts of the South may be overdone; but this is not yet the case. Our principal object in referring to this matter is to show, by the citation of a single instance, how successful some of these cotton manufactories in the South have been, and then to point out the fact that the West is almost barren of cotton mills, and that herein lies a great industry which needs development. The instance we desire to call the attention of our manufacturers to—especially manufacturers East who are thinking of embarking in manufacturing in the West—is the following, which we find in a Philadelphia paper:

"The profits of the Langley Cotton Factory, at Graniteville, S. C., for the year 1878, were $50,991. During the year two dividends of 4 per cent. each declared, and the company has now to its credit a surplus of $151,988. The production of the mill for the year was, 122,683 pieces, 2,073,533 pounds or 6,216-364 yards of cloth. Cotton consumed during the year 1878, 5,527 bales, with an average weight of 436 pounds—2,520,-431 pounds."

Now it certainly is questionable whether there is a single cotton mill in the North, of similar capacity, that can make as favorable a showing, either in regard to profit or product, as the one cited above. The South in building up cotton mills, and manufacturing the fleecy product of her soil into goods for home consumption, or for export, is simply obeying that first law of nature, self-preservation. It is a fact that the success of the numerous mills in the South, which are turning out some descriptions of goods fully equal to any made in the New England States, has hurt Eastern manufacturers and deprived them of a large patronage, which in former years, was of great value to them. The cotton mills of New England are not in as prosperous a condition as they were, and some of them have had to succumb to the "pressure of the times." The South is seeking a means to supply her own people with home manufactures, and in this they have taken a most commendable step.

The amount of capital invested in the Langley cotton factory is not given. Suppose, however, it is $100,000, the profits will then be over 50 per cent. or 25 per cent. on $200,000.

The amount of cotton consumed for 1878 by that one factory is given at about 6,000 bales, which is a fourth part of all the cotton handled in this city. If Raleigh had a factory like this to consume 6,000 bales annually, we believe, that, instead of 25,000 bales our cotton folks would ship twice that amount every year. Let this experiment of a cotton factory be tried. There is no danger of failure of even realizing the enormous profits of the factory at Graniteville.

To Cigar Manufacturers.

In response to a letter of inquiry, Internal-Revenue-Commissioner Raum makes the following reply, which will be of interest to cigar manufacturers: "In reply to yours of the 19th, inquiring if it is lawful to use rubber stamps for making cancellation lines on cigar stamps, instead of copper or brass stencil-plates, as prescribed by the regulations, page 25, Sec. 7, No. 8, I will say that this office will allow the use of rubber stamps or stencil-plates provided that the six waved lines shall be put upon the box and across the stamp continuously, and in as effectual a manner by such instrument as would be done by means of a stencil-plate."

A CHARGE DISPROVED.

AN INACCURATE HISTORICAL STATEMENT CORRECTED.

A Review of the Great Senatorial Contest of 1852---The Public Land Question.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, May 29.—In your issue of Sunday 25th I find an extract from a work entitled "Living Authors of the South," purporting to give a sketch of the life of the Hon. John H. Wheeler, formerly of North Carolina, and its historian. The following allusion to the late Judge Romulus M. Saunders is so grossly inaccurate that it demands notice at my hands.

"It was in the Legislature of 1852 that the memorable Senatorial contest took place lasting forty days. Mr. Dobbin was the caucus nominee of the Democratic party, and on several ballots came within one vote of being elected. He was defeated by Mr. Romulus Saunders, who bolted the caucus, persisting to the last in voting for Burton Craig." [The italics are mine.]

The question of the distribution of the public lands was then (1852) beginning to distract and divide the Democratic party of the State. Judge Saunders favored distribution, and was sincerely impressed with the fact that he therein represented a majority of the people of the State. A respectable minority of the Democratic members of the Legislature holding similar views refused to support the Hon. James C. Dobbin, the caucus nominee, and Judge Saunders, acceding to their wishes, allowed his name to be used in opposition.

A message having been received from the Senate on the 20th of November, agreeing to go into an election for United States Senator, and informing the House that the Hon. James C. Dobbin was in nomination, Col. Robert Love, of Haywood, added the name of R. M. Saunders, of Wake, and General Cotton, of Chatham, that of James B. Shepard, of Raleigh.

Upon the tenth (10th) ballot Judge Saunders' name was withdrawn, the ten ballots having been taken within the space of six days between the 20th of November and the 4th of December. So much for the historical fact of this contest having lasted for forty days, and the implied charge that Judge Saunders' opposition continuing that period resulted in the defeat of the caucus nominee. The highest number of votes received by Mr. Dobbin in any of the ten (10) ballots in which Judge Saunders' name was in opposition, was (77) seventy-seven, when (84) eighty-four were necessary to a choice. At no time in the whole contest did Mr. Dobbin come within one vote of his election; but when on the thirteenth (13th) ballot it was supposed by his friends that a single vote would elect Mr. Dobbin; upon being informed of the fact Judge Saunders promptly cast his vote for James C. Dobbin, and the House journal for that session shows it. Upon this point I quote a letter of Colonel William A. Allen, of Duplin, then a member of the House from Wake. He writes:

"Afterward, while a balloting was proceeding for the Senatorship, when it was thought that the Democratic party could be united, Mr. Dobbin asked me to keep count as the vote was called. I did so, and as the roll call was ended he approached my seat, and asked me how the vote stood. I answered him that I thought his vote would secure Mr. Dobbin's election. The Judge immediately addresses the Speaker and asked leave to vote, and thereupon announced his vote for Mr. Dobbin." Upon this (the 13th) ballot Mr. Dobbin received eighty (80) votes, when eighty-two (82) was necessary to a choice. Judge Saunders' name having been withdrawn after the tenth ballot, Mr. Woodfin received seventy-six (76) and the Hon. James B. Shepard two (2) votes.

We charge that Judge Saunders was responsible for the defeat of the caucus nominee thus falls to the ground, as he and his friends voted their full strength upon this ballot for Mr. Dobbin. The Hon. Jas. B. Shepard's name being continued in opposition and receiving on this ballot the two Democratic votes necessary to elect Mr. Dobbin, his friends and not Judge Saunders', are responsible for the defeat of the caucus nominee, as well as the fact charged by this writer that the State remained without representation for the ensuing two years—the Governor deciding that he had no power to appoint.

An old personal and political friend of Judge Saunders, in a letter to the writer, says:

"To show the growing power of this issue (distribution of the public lands) in the country, it may be stated that in 1853—the succeeding year—the election for member of Congress in the metropolitan district, turned upon it, and Mr. Venable, the distribution candidate, although defeated by a third party, Mr. Rogers received twice the number of votes that Mr. Lewis the anti-distribution candidate received."

The course pursued by Judge Saunders, never lost him the confidence of the Democratic party, for a close examination of the files of the party organ, the Standard, of that day, fails to show when, in a single instance, he was assailed for what he had done.

In the same session in which this contest occurred he was voted for to fill the vacancy upon the Supreme Court Bench created by the resignation of Chief Justice Ruffin, and was elected over the Hon. Asa Biggs for judge of the third circuit.

No one of the dead and none of the living did more than he during the long space of fifty years to serve and benefit North Carolina, and it ill becomes any writer upon the public men of the State to hold him up as inflicting an injury upon her interests by a willful missta.ement of facts, when the journals of the day are accessible to all.

"An eagle, towering in his pride of place,
Was by a mourning owl, hawked at, and killed."

WM. J. SAUNDERS.

Cotton Fluctuations.

October, 1878—Opened at 10c. and declined to 9c.

November—Opened at 9c. and remained steady throughout the month.

December—Opened at 8¾ c., declined to 8¼ @ 8¼, with one or two sales to arrive at 8c. but rallied to 8¾c.

January, 1879.—Steady at 8¼ @ 9c.

February—Opened at 9c. advanced to 9¼c.

March—Opened at 9¼@9¾c. advanced to 10c.

April—Opened at 10¼c., advanced to 11¼c.

It will be observed that in December prices reached bottom figures, and from that date there was a steady rise, amounting in less than five months to about five cents per pound.

"TREASON."

Nothing more clearly indicates the pitch of desperation the Republican party has reached than the comments of its organs upon the recent note of Senator David Davis to Messrs. Day and Robinson of the Illinois Legislature. If the Senator—"an original Republican," bear in mind—had cursed the Union and damned the constitution, he could not have been more vigorously and vindictively abused. And this, only this, is "the head and front of his offending:"

This is a government of legal authority, founded on the constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof. One of the grievances of which our forefathers complained was that the king had quartered troops on them and sought by military power to coerce them into submission.

"It is little less than a public scandal, after a century of national existence, that any party could venture to ask the people's approval of a species of tyranny that is forbidden in England and wherever else the parliamentary principle is respected."

If the founders of the Republic could be resurrected long enough to learn that such sentiments as these are regarded and treated as "treason" one hundred and three years after the declaration of American independence, we fancy they would go back to their graves regretting they had ever struck a blow in behalf of that independence.

THE Ohio Republican Convention which nominated ex-Congressman Foster for Governor last week adopted a platform, of course. As it contains useful suggestions to other Republican conventions we note that it pledges the Republican party to the "maintenance of free suffrage," and that is no bayonet suffrage or Deputy-Marshal suffrage; to the "supremacy of the National Government in all matters placed by the Constitution under its control," but this does not include matters which are not placed by the Constitution under the control of the National Government. The second resolution is a "buncombe," bloody-shirt resolution touching the mad career of the Democrats in Congress, who have done nothing more than take the position which Seward and Giddings and Wade and Wilson and Hale and Fessenden and the great founders of the Republican party took twenty years ago. (To its shame it must be confessed.) The third resolution condemns the President. It is he that has refused to consent to the appropriation of the public moneys to their legitimate objects. Congress makes the appropriations and the Executive vetoes them; and the platform absurdly says that this shows an attempt on the part of the Democratic party to break up the Government by refusing to appropriate public moneys. The next resolution impeaches the extra session of Congress for high crimes and misdemeanors. What a cheerful prospect for 1880!

...the veto of the Legislature bill, what? The following is the policy foreshadowed by our Washington news—How reliable it is we know not: First, to pass as an independent measure the repeal of the test oath, which the President may not veto, as no objections to this repeal are urged in his message; then to pass a bill repealing the Federal election laws, which there is little reason to believe the President will approve, this to be followed by a joint resolution extending appropriations for the army until the regular meeting of Congress in December, with a proviso that no money be used for the payment of troops at the polls; and a second joint resolution extending appropriations under the Legislative bill in the same way, with a proviso that no money be used for the payment of election supervisors and marshals. It is sufficient to say here that it is within the power of the powerful and perfectly disciplined Republican minority to effectually obstruct this policy by filibustering. If the 50 Democratic absentees were at their post the Democrats would have a working majority in the House. Until then all attempts at legislation are futile and absurd. Until then the Republican minority will dictate legislation. Did we know the Democratic leader at Washington we might whisper in his ear. Alas! that leader! Who is he? or rather "who is he not?" Well.

ANOTHER iconoclast is at work. In opposition to all the evidence submitted in favor of the authenticity of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence a correspondent of the Concord Sun makes the assertion that this celebrated instrument was a myth. He should send a copy of his prepared statement to Lord Beaconsfield in order that the English statesman might correct the article on this subject appearing in "Curiosities of Literature," compiled by his father. Isaac Disraeli.

REFERRING to the war of words going on in Cabarrus county over the authenticity of the Mecklenburg declaration, the Concord Register says:

We know but very little of the 20th of May, 1775, but feel that at about that time there was a remarkable circumstance occurred in Charlotte. That a Hornest's nest was disturbed and the bugs came buzzing about the ears of those red coat military. It was opposition to the "Army Bill." Democrats now-a-days are opposed to it. If the "20th of May" did not take place about that time, it ought to have, and if it ought to have we believe it did. Anyhow we say hurrah for the Mecklenburg Declaration, and Charlotte's glory, the blest returning 20th of May.

AUSTRIA did not occupy Bosnia and Herzgovina without some sacrifice of men and money. The people looked for some recompense for this expenditure, and thought they found it in the annexation of two fine provinces. This, however, is not the case. The treaty under which the provinces were occupied has recently been published, and it is found that the Sultan's sovereignty over both is fully guaranteed. Now the Austrians are grumbling, naturally enough, at the loss of their blood and money for the maintenance of peace and order in the Grand Turk's dominions.

THE Tilden income tax case has dragged beyond all reason and should have been completed long ere this, even if the capital of a verdict against Mr. Tilden would be worth more in the midst of a campaign.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

So, the sweeping charges against Mr. Tilden of defrauding the revenue of untold millions had their foundation in party malice. It has long been apparent to the public that such was the case, as Mr. Tilden has been ready in court to meet the complaint and the Government was never ready.

A CONTRACTION of the currency to the amount of about one-eighth of its entire circulation is one result of the refunding-certificate speculation which already threatens no little embarrassment in the money market. It is to tide over this difficulty that Secretary Sherman proposes to redeem during the month of June all called bonds maturing on the first of July. He will also limit the further sale of certificates in order to cover a longer period of time for their disposal.

THE Franklin Reporter joyfully states that "the Cherokee Herald has again arisen from its slumbers. This time it carries at its mast-head the name of U. S. Grant for President. So the Grant movement is "booming," and with the Herald, filled with patent medicine cuts, to champion the cause what can resist the movement?"

THE New York Nation has seen the "Man on Horseback," and is moved to remark that "It is notorious that Grant failed as a political leader. The offer of a third term to him, therefore, would be held to indicate that his supporters sought not a shrewd party chief but a skilled soldier to enable them to carry out some scheme of violence."

THE Republican party (or at least that weighty portion of it contained in the Bakersville Republican office) has nominated the following ticket for 1880: President, Ulysses S. Grant; Vice-President, Thomas Settle; Governor, Eugene Grissom, of Wake; Lieutenant-Governor, D. M. Furches, of Iredell.

THE Concord Sun hoists the name of Hon. William M. Robbins, of Iredell, for Governor in 1880.

POLITICAL NOTES.

We are sorry that it has not occurred to some of our exchanges to observe that the galleries at Washington are filled with secessionists.—Waterloo Observer.

It looks very much as though Hayes' surrender to the Chandler and Logan crowd included not only the veto of the various anti-bayonet bills, but provided for a further outrage on General Fitz John Porter.—Philadelphia Times.

General Conway, the Manager of the Colored Exodus, resided in Louisiana in 1866 and did business in a carpet-bag. His skill in separating colored men from their money was so great in those days that the opinion prevails that unless he has forgotten his cunning it will be a mighty lucky negro who carries a dollar to Kansas while he is looking after the toll-gates.—Baltimore Gazette.

Let no one suspect Germans in general of communistic tendencies, for about half of the purchasers of the ten dollar four per cents are of Teutonic extraction, and no man who is saving money takes any stock in communism. —N. Y. World.

General [illegible] of Grant, to a Cincinnati Enquirer reporter, "I think the better class of men in his party don't want him again. Tom Murphy wants him, doubtless, as do Belknap, Babcock, and Robeson, and all the fellows he used to associate with. Jim Fisk would want him again if he was alive."

General Joe Hooker has been visiting Cincinnati, where he has said that General Grant is a great soldier. He evidently feels very deeply what Grant is reported to have said about the battle in the clouds. Hooker believes that the better class of men in the Republican party do not want Grant for President for a third term. He says that Grant engineered the Black Friday panic, and that Jim Fisk carried it out for him. Hooker says that Thomas was the greatest soldier that the war produced on the northern side, and Joe Johnston on the southern.

While Hayes sees awful danger in a control of their elections by each of the thirty-eight States for itself, he is able to see only safety in the manipulation of these elections by half a score of Radical partisans plotting for themselves and party in a back room in Washington City, and holding at their finger-ends the civil, military, financial, legislative, judicial and executive power of the United States—substantially controlling the mail transportation and post-offices, and all other public offices—wielding at their command a hundred thousand office-holders—spending three hundred millions yearly, and holding in their hands so large a part of the means of popular control that but little seems to be left.—Detroit Free Press.

Senator David Davis says: "It is hardly necessary for me to say that I am in favor of perfect freedom of elections from the interference or the presence of any part of the army at the polls, because that opinion was emphatically expressed on the floor of the Senate. This is a government of legal authority, founded on the Constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof. One of the grievances of which our forefathers complained was that the King had quartered troops on them, and sought by military power to coerce them into submission. It is little less than a public scandal, after a century of national existence, that any party could venture to ask the people's approval of a species of tyranny that is forbidden in England, and wherever else the parliamentary principle is respected."

The matter has resolved itself into a direct question of Grant or Sherman thus early in the game. Sherman, to make any fight in the National Convention of 1880, has got to carry Ohio for his man Foster this fall. Grant, to secure the nomination, has got to prevent this. If Sherman fails it will be the end of him. If he succeeds Grant is doomed, regardless of what may happen to Sherman afterward, Grant's friends see that the question is raised and that the time for action has come. If Taft had been nominated this issue might have been avoided. As it is, a settlement must be had at once. If Grant is to be saved Sherman must be sacrificed.—Washington Post.

Hayes scents extreme danger to a free ballot under the protection of thirty-eight States—administered by differing political parties—having different interests and views, and each more or less a check upon the other. The very clatter about local election frauds, which now fills the papers, shows how closely these States and parties watch each other, and what a restraining influence they exert. It may be wholly impossible to prevent all frauds under the system of State control, but the experience of the country for nearly a hundred years never suggested the change which the Radicals have made and seek to perpetuate, until they determined to practically abolish free elections and establish a Federal control of the ballot, which should enable them to perpetuate their control of the government.—Atlanta Constitution.

Oatmeal FOR Dyspepsia.

In the last five years the consumption of Oatmeal in this country has probably increased twenty-fold. People differ so much in their likes and dislikes that we do not insist on anybody eating oatmeal because somebody else does, but the great growth of its popularity as an anti-dyspeptic is beyond doubt. Generally the Irish and Scotch Meals are considered best, but they sell comparatively high, and persons who have used both say that the Canadian and American Meals are just as good; these latter retail for 6¼c. per lb. against 15c. for former.

Oatmeal should be well cooked. As it is usually made it may be soaked over night, and then boiled like mush for, say half an hour. No doubt it is most wholesome eaten plain, but the temptation to use various dressings—generally sugar or cream—is too strong for any but very firm seekers, but where these are taken it should be as the Friends say, in "moderation."

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N.C. I con ur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap) It is endorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of nationalfame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapentical agent—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va. Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics, Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, L. L. Col., Va.
It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for Indigestion and Flatulent Colic, sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly ape ent, without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward, P. E., Na. Cont.
About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Failing in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.
I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For protration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.
It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion, I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.
This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "Nation Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

Talbott's Patent Spark Arrester,

THE INVENTION OF THE AGE.

Talbott's new Patent Spark Arrester is really the only perfect and reliable one, and is superseding all others in use. The great efficiency of this Arrester is attracting universal attention, and is being endorsed by the best mechanical engineers and insurance companies. Its prominent features are:

It does not destroy the draft.

It does not interfere with cleaning the tubes.

It will not choke up, and requires no cleaning.

It requires no direct dampers to be opened when raising steam (dampers being objectionable, as they may be left open and allow sparks to escape.)

It requires no water to extinguish sparks, which, by condensation, destroys the draft. Besides, when water is used, if neglected, the efficiency is destroyed by evaporation of the water, and the boiler is kept in a filthy condition.

It is simple and durable, and can be relied upon.

It can be attached to any boiler.

No planter should be without one of them. Insurance companies will insure gins and barns where the Talbott Engines and Spark Arresters are used at same rate as charged for water or horse-power.

Views of Secretary McCrary.

Baltimore Sun.

These views of Secretary McCrary will be read with interest. It will be seen that they carry out the same idea embodied in the letter of Secretary Sherman, "National supremacy in national matters." The expressions of these two influential members of the cabinet, who have always been in accord with the stalwart wing of the Republican party, show very plainly what issues the Republican leaders have determined to fight the next presidential campaign on.

Secretary McCrary, speaking of the political situation and the probable issues in the presidential campaign of 1880, said that however much certain leaders in the Republican party may attempt to bring the financial issue into the contest as the paramount one, he regarded the stronger issue that of State rights. He remarked that he had watched the course of legislation in Congress from the beginning of the session, and it could be shown that every measure of a political character had the States' rights dogma embodied in it in some form or other. That this doctrine from the earliest days of the Republic had been the ruling passion of the extreme wing of the Democratic party, and in the natural course of events led to the rebellion of the Southern States, in which the fire-eating element prevailed. He said with the return of the Democratic party to power in Congress this same disorganizing principle comes to the front, and the Democratic party, North as well as South, true to their ancient faith, have announced their determination to wipe out from the statute books all laws enacted during and since the rebellion which come in conflict with the States' rights doctrine.

He said that it was remarkable to him that while there was so many sagacious men among the party leaders, and especially in the Senate, that they should permit themselves to be placed in an attitude where they are constantly put on the defensive. He thinks that while Republicans, particularly in the West are much divided on the details of the financial issue, there is but one sentiment amongst them on the dangerous doctrine, as he styles it, of State rights, and that is that it several times culminated in an effort to dissolve the Union, and will in the course of events terminate in a struggle of the same character. He added that this issue as a party platform would take the lead of all others, and in the light of the past experience of the country and the dangers and possibilities of the future, would arouse every element, not only of the Republican party, but that portion of the Democratic party at the North which co-operated with the Republicans in saving the Union after the ultra wing of the southern Democracy had dragooned the whole party into rebellion.

The Vermont Poisoning Case.

An Island Pond (Vt.,) dispatch states that there have been nine deaths so far of children who drank from a poisoned brook, viz.: Edward Morse lost two of his children, John Aldrich five, Frederick Simpson one, L. Wilson one, Mr. Park one and John Cole one. The others cannot live. Potato tops, poisoned by Paris green, were also thrown into the brook, causing the belief that the latter is the prime cause more than the carcasses of dead animals. There is terrible distress here, work is suspended and there is great excitement. Twenty-seven children were poisoned by drinking from the brook, and the farmer who allowed the carcasses to be thrown into it will be arrested. The bodies of the dead children soon decomposed and had to be burried forthwith.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. Dr. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA AND QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis, Mercurial diseases can be reasonably founded, and the only sure Cancer. $10,000 will be paid by the proprietors if Mercury, or any impure vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

By Hon. A. W. Tourgee.

Index to New Advertisements.

R. B. ANDREWS & Co.—Local notice.
DR. WM. H. HOWERTON. — Warm Springs.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Two baptisms took place at the Swain Street Baptist Church Sunday.

——A colored man killed a snake measuring seven feet at Dry Pond on Friday.

——Mr. John Baker, sheriff of Ashe county, brought in two colored and two white guests for the State boarding house yesterday.

——Dick Crockett, came into the penitentiary yesterday from Mecklenburg for house breaking. This is a terrible warning to the would-be house breaker,

——A foreign gentlemen, ballasted down with corn sap, was quietly laid away in the guard-house for thirty-six hours, the Mayor being in a very hospitable mood.

——The colored people had a general baptizing at Taylor's pond on Sunday. Twenty-seven received the ordinance. There was a large attendance, and the converts were greatly excited.

——Sunday was quiet. The hot weather has a soothing effect. Consequently there was little "shinning around" looking for back doors, and the Mayor had but little business yesterday morning.

——Everybody interested should remember that the act of the last Legislature prohibiting the carrying of deadly weapons went into effect on the 1st of June, and that it is made the duty of sheriffs, constables, town officers, and all other State officers to enforce the same.

——A negro woman on the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets yesterday attracted considerable attention by her mode of persuading her child. The picaninny didn't get along fast enough to suit her, so she knocked it down and then picked it up and spanked it. Some gentlemen interfered and forbade her punishing the child any further.

Reunion Banquet.

We have received an invitation to the reunion banquet of the North Carolina XZI Chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, on Wednesday evening, June 11th, at the close of the college exercises.

Superintendent of Health.

The coroner, magistrates and other officers of the law are informed that this officer is the physician to be called in wherever they have occasion, in their official capacity, to send for a doctor. See chapter 117, laws of 1879. Dr. James McKee has been elected to this position in Wake county.

Penitentiary Recruits.

Sheriff Baker, of Ashe county, brought his installment of State employees on Sunday. They were all larceny charges, and figure on the records as follows: T. W. McDougall, colored, five years; Lee Dishman, white, five years: Carriday Proffit, white, one year, and John Cook, colored, one year —all for larceny.

A Noisy Meteor.

On Sunday morning, at about fifteen minutes of 3, a meteor of unusual magnitude made its appearance in the southern sky, moving in a southeastern direction. It was observed for some twenty-five seconds and then disappeared. Three minutes afterward a loud detonation was heard, sounding like the discharge of a heavy piece of ordnance.

Personals.

General Philip B. Hawkins, of Louisburg, is in the city on a visit, and is stopping with Colonel A. B. Andrews.

Judge Buxton was in the city yesterday on his way home from Rockingham court. this court closes his circuit.

An Invitation to Lawyers.

Every lawyer while visiting Raleigh is invited to call at Alfred Williams & Co.'s bookstore and carefully examine "Tourgee's Digest of Cited Cases." It will prove itself to be "the most valuable book ever offered to the profession in North Carolina. It is highly indorsed by many of the ablest lawyers in the store.

Attention Artillerymen.

There will be a special meeting of the Raleigh Light Artillery Thursday night at the Mayor's office at 8½ o'clock. Every member of the company is earnestly requested to be present as business of vital importance will be transacted which will be for the future prosperity of the company. By order of LIEUT. J. AMOS HARRIS.

Supreme Court.

Court met yesterday at 10 a. m. Present—Chief Justice Smith and Justices Ashe and Dillard. The time of the court was occupied all day in the examination of applicants for license to practice law. The class comprises thirty-three students, who were examined on the first cases yesterday and will be examined on the second cases to-day.

The Swimming School.

Mr. Paul Lincke requests the citizens, young men as well as parents, desirous of establishing a swimming school, to meet him to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at Metropoliton Hall, to discuss the subject. If the enterprise receives sufficient encouragement he will push it through as speedily as possibly. In detailing the particulars he stated that he would make the terms so low as to be within the means of all. Children should be taught to swim, and thus prevent the recurrence of such casualties as happened but a fortnight ago.

Change of Schedule on the N. C. R. R.

By this means passengers can leave for the north after business hours, take sleeper at Greensboro, get a night's rest and arrive in Washington at 7:50 a. m. To Health Seekers.

The Warm Springs in Madison county, in the western part of the State, has gained considerable reputation for the curative properties of the waters. They are located on the French Broad river, near the Tennessee line, and surrounded on all sides by the highest mountain ranges east of the Mississippi river, presenting some of the most magnificent scenery in the United States, in fact so grand that a lengthy article in relation to this section appeared in that magnificent work "Picturesque America." The climate of the Warm Springs locality is pronounced one of the most desirable east of the Rocky Mountains for invalids, it having the mildest winters in proportion to the coolness of its summers. See advertisement.

Bad Sidewalks.

A number of brick walks in this city greatly need repairing, as in many places the bricks have worked out and are lying here and there upon the walk for pedestrians to stumble over. It is true, they may be avoided in daylight, but in darkness they cannot well be, and it is anything but pleasant when the toe of one's boot comes in contact with them. It would be better to dispense with such walks and substitute mother earth, unless they can be kept in proper order,—Newbernian.

This is a matter in which our citizens have no cause for complaint, as every one knows that Raleigh's walks are as smooth and level as a billiard table. Neither are there any boxes or other obstructions lying around loose for a person to stumble over in our brilliantly lighted streets.

United States Commissioner's Court.

Mr. Laurence Evans (col.) came up for legal attention Saturday. He was arrested upon a charge of retailing liquor without a license. Held for trial. Bond $200. Filed.

Mr. Gaston Wood was next. This gentleman and is more familiarly known as Judge Wood up in Buckhorn township. He retailed liquor and was held for trial under a bond of $200, which was given.

Mr. W. W. Pace, from Little River, a gentleman of large physical dimensions, came along for trial No. 3. The warrant was suspended and defendant released—not sufficient reliable evidence. Old offense of retailing spirituous liquors. This same gentleman was also arraigned for selling tobacco without stamps and submitted quietly, taking out a license thereupon.

Open Letter from Rev. J. J. Worlds (Colored).

Having served the congregation of the First Baptist Church (colored) of the city of Raleigh for five years and four months, I therefore have resigned that church, and leave in peace and good order with the congregation, and will preach my farewell sermon on Sunday night, June 8th, thinking it best to make a change. I therefore tender my hearty thanks to the citizens of Raleigh for the kindness shown to me by the white and colored people of the city. REV J. J. WORLDS.

Raleigh, May 31, 1879.

United States Federal Court.

Court met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Judge Brooks presiding.

The Bar and the Judge exchanged compliments, and the question of when the next court would be held, as there was no funds, was mooted. Thereupon the court adjourned till 5 p. m., at which time the Judge announced that on account of the deficiency of funds for the payment of jurors and United witnesses, there would be no grand jury and consequently no criminal cases would be tried, except where bills had already been found or the defendants desired to be tried upon information. The civil docket was called and several cases set for trial. The Judge announced that the term would be an adjourned term till the first Monday in September, to which time the parties and witnesses will be recognized. It is likely that the civil business will be considerable.

The new court room has miserable acoustic properties, and is said to be very trying to the patience of the Judge and the impatience of the bar.

Scalped by an Engine.

Mr. L. G. Bagley has just returned from his northern bridal tour. He related to the peripatetic NEWS man a little incident of his trip. As the train on which he and his bride were riding, was running between New York and Trenton, a man in a cart, hauled by a mule, were crossing the track ahead of the flying engine, which was making fifty miles an hour. Just as they got good on the track, the mule nullified, and though exerted by his master's whip and voice would not budge an inch. The man lost his presence of mind. On came the engine, bearing down on them with overwhelming ruin. The man sat in his cart oblivious to everything but his stubborn mule. In an instant, the man and mule were sent whirling into eternity. The cart was sent to atoms. The strange feature of the case was that the wheel of the engine glanced on the man's head and took off his scalp without crushing his skull at all; the body was crushed and terribly mangled. Mr. Bagley relates the story well and can tell those who would like to hear it in a much more intelligent manner than has the reporter.

A Telephone for Raleigh.

We learn there is a movement on the part of the Telephone agency of the telegraph office in this city to start a telephone exchange here, giving good reliable instruments and guaranteeing satisfaction as to its working correctly and understandingly. Any merchant taking a share can talk with any other subscriber. For instance, any cotton or bank man can in an instant be connected with the depots or any other point desired, also private residences can be connected with business offices down town or any point desired. It appears to be a good thing; what we understand about it seems practicable and desirable.

Business men of Raleigh will no doubt call upon the manager of the telegraph office in regard to it at once, subscription lists can be filled by him. There will be a central office at the main office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and it is proposed that a man shall be kept on duty day and night to attend promptly to all calls from any point, and messengers in attendance to aid in the delivery of messages. Call on Major Starke, who will cheerfully give all information, and take pleasure in explaining the working of this new and desirable object of convenience and safety.

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall street, and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skilful management, thus, securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at end of 30 days. A gentleman in Boston made $747.30 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this combination or Co-operative Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent. on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent. during the month, and so on, according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

Fragrant and Delicate Odors.

Each flower contains a fragrant substance, and the separation of this substance in a manner so as to retain all of its sweetness, requires the greatest experience and care. Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes are prepared by a process that so retains their natural fragrance.

Woman's Wisdom.

"She insists that is more important that her family shall be kept in full health, than that she should have all the fashionable dresses and styles of the times. She therefore sees to it, that each member of her family is supplied with enough Hop Bitters, at the first appearance of any symptoms of ill health, to prevent a fit of sickness with its attendant expense, care and anxiety. All women should exercise their wisdom in this way."—Ed.

The old patron Dutch Saint, whose name is honored from the extreme Orient to the Ultima Thule, never had a more striking illustration than in the honor of giving name to the "St. Nicholas" hotel of New York, an establishment associated in the minds of tens of thousands with the most profuse and elegant hospitality. Still in the van, this hotel unites all the best features of the present with the charming traditions of the past. The reduction of prices in connection with the excellence of accommodations makes it the cheapest hotel in the country.

The Rich California Banker.

When it had become known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Besides having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, into one vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, dividing profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) gives "two unerring rules for success," and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

Who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk
And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adorn your forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
Will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids you all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too,
And not forget
